

MUTHONI MURIUKI

Growing up in a close-knit and loving family that consistently celebrated achievements has served as my primary source of motivation to aspire for greatness and, undoubtedly, make a significant impact on the world. Later in life, as a tech enthusiast with a strong passion for mentorship and a deep commitment to environmental causes, I strive every day to create meaningful change in these areas and beyond, all while embracing the journey with a smile.

Strengths

- problem solving & Critical Thinking
- optimism and enthusiasm
- Conflict Resolution
- Time management
- Hard Tech Skills
- Public Speaking
- fast learner

Weakness

- Frequently oscillating between a superiority complex and impostor syndrome
- Too much optimism(which may lead to overlooking red-flags)
- Tendency to Get Overwhelmed(esp while having multiple task at once)
